- prepares children, most of whom have experienced trauma, for their early years learning
- provides paid employment for qualified but unemployed childcare educators of African refugee heritage
- supports new arrivals on pathways to higher and vocational education and employment

ABOUT THE RNLC

The River Nile Learning Centre (RNLC) is a charitable organisation that empowers disadvantaged refugee and asylum seeker women through education.

All education, social welfare support and childcare are provided free-of-charge to our students, as they are unable to contribute to the cost of their education.

Through education, RNLC is breaking the cycle of dependence on social welfare of the students and their children.

RNLC is a not-for-profit incorporated association, recognised by the Australian Taxation Office as a Deductible Gift Recipient therefore all donations of $2 and above are tax deductible.
